Observe the copyrights of our talented designers, publishers and quilters

When a pattern, book or magazine is purchased, we can duplicate these designs for our own personal use. However, once we exhibit in public, we have an obligation to identify the design inspiration sources and give the copyright owner credit. Be sure to identify the name of the designer and the source of the patter (pattern name and book or magazine) in the description portion of the entry form. If another person has machine or hand quilted your entry, it should also be noted in our description.

Your Quilt Story

For each submission, please include a brief description of your quilt story.

We are asking that all "stories" associated with each entry be restricted in size to fit this label. Your "story" will fit nicely onto the preferred label size. The font selected is a narrow one which minimizes wasted space due to work sizing.

Use this space to give additional information about your creation but we do ask that you keep it brief. Longer submissions will be edited or truncated to fit.

This sample text is 507 characters in length which will totally fill the space allocated on the page.
