

QUILTING LINES

Celebrating our 30th Anniversary!

This year's meetings will be held at the Penetanguishene Arena, 61 Maria St. Penetanguishene, ON. Mask wearing will be dependant on the location regulations. As per Public Health recommendations, mask are highly recommended but at this time they remain optional.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello all!

I hope everyone had a Happy Thanksgiving and enjoyed time with family and friends. As I sit here writing my president's message it sure feels like fall which means for me a quilting retreat coming up next weekend, three days of sewing, friends and great food and won't have to do a thing.

What a wonderful September Guild meeting, wow Michael Smith was amazing! I especially enjoyed how humorous and vivid his stories were. I'm still laughing about how he was introduced to quilting by following along with Eleanor Burns on TV.

October will bring our first workshop of this guild year with Sue Sherman. Hawaiian quilting is something I have always wanted to learn so I'm very much looking forward to it. There are still spaces available. Please don't hesitate to contact either myself or Cathy Proulx to register for this amazing opportunity.

I look forward to seeing you all at the October meeting. And not to worry, there will be cream and milk. Thank you Janet Rawson for taking on that task.

Sew long,
Jan Dzoch
President

Sue Sherman - Journey of a Renaissance Woman

Sue is a National and International Award-winning Quilt Artist. She has been working with fibers and fabric for many years. Her fabric creations connect with the places and wildlife she has seen in her travels. Her quilts feature wildlife taken from her own photos. She creates lifelike images through many hours of precise painting with dyes and thread.

Hawaiian Quilting Workshop - With Sue Sherman [Spots Still Available!]

By Day Sue is a textile artist working with hand dyed fabrics or dye painting, and machine quilting, to make realistic quilts depicting wild animals.

At Dusk Sue becomes a slow stitcher, making Hawaiian Quilts and other projects using hand appliqué and hand quilting. She lived most of 2012 through 2014 in Honolulu where she was part of a Hawaiian quilting class, and there she learned about the techniques, design, and cultural significance of Hawaiian quilting.

You will have your choice of Sue's introductory Hawaiian quilt blocks shown in the pictures.

Date: Thursday October 27, 2022

Time: 9:00am to 3:00pm

Cost: $50.00

Location: Penetang Memorial Arena

Sign Up with Cathy Proulx at the October Meeting, email Cathy, or phone Cathy.

Come out and have fun with fellow quilters. Workshops are a great way to meet new friends and learn new techniques and tips.

Bring your Lunch and a mug for tea or coffee.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Hello Quilters

A big Thank You for the fall placemats. We were able to present to the Red Cross with 40 placemats for their Meals-on-Wheels Program. They are greatly appreciated.

A friendly reminder to put those “placemat skills” to work for the Christmas placemats we will be presenting to the Red Cross in December.
I will bring fabric for Cuddle quilts as well as batting if anyone is interested.

Happy Quilting.
